HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation of great purity, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit these well known remedies—
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.
DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, cause in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, never feel well. They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.
WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those it will be observed are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.
TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 18, 1767.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of great debility, and want of nervous action. Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."
HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."
FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear conscience can in this instance, in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eighth, below Coates St.
FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.
Assistant Editor "Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.
CAUTION.
Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

HURRAH FOR GRANT.
Hurrah for Old Appomattox! Hurrah for Gen. Grant! With him we whipped the rebels, and a song for him we chant;
We'll rally round his battle flags, the flag of Union true, And drive the rebel gray once more before the Loyal Blue.
CHORUS.
Oh, he knows the Boys in Blue; yes he knows the Boys in Blue,
And with ballots as with bullets he will find them ever true,
And the gray locks and the copperheads will learn the truth anew
That our yankee lads will ne'er forget, the wearing of the blue.
They may weep for Stonewall Jackson, and of Lee they still may vaunt,
While we shout for Old Appomattox, and vote for General Grant;
They may sympathize with Davis, and uphold his beaten crew,
But no rebel gray shall ever stay, the loyal Boys in Blue.
CHORUS.
Oh, we trust the Boys in Blue; for we know the Boys in Blue,
And they'll never flinch nor give an inch while work they have to do;
So bring on your rebel gray again, and give us but a view,
And we'll show you that we don't forget the wearing of the Blue.
UNION.

The "Political Sense" at the South.

From the New York Nation.

The performances of the Southern orators and editors continue to furnish striking illustrations of the extent to which their troubles are due to their bad political habits, and of the large part which time and restraint from without play in Southern regeneration. When we have been looking, as most of us have, to some particular measure as a "sure and instant cure" for Southern ills, we have forgotten that hardly any Southerner of this generation is familiar with the practical working of a free government; that the very basis of a free government—a general faith in the power of discussion, as expressed by the vote—has been wanting at the South for thirty years; that none of the young or middle-aged men are any more familiar with the process of forming opinion by talk, and of listening to talk that they do not like, than Frenchmen or Russians—in fact they are not nearly so familiar with it as Frenchmen.

It is over thirty years since the place of the negro in society became the vital question of Southern politics. The question of secession was merely an accessory of that of slavery. The people have, during that interval, thought, spoken, and written of little else. All other subjects—theology, political economy, moral philosophy, and natural sciences even—have owed a large part of their interest, in Southern eyes, to their bearing on the negro's origin and destiny, and have been cultivated mainly with reference to slavery. Now, touching slavery—that is, touching the matter which most occupied men's thoughts, and about which men's passions have been most roused—the expression of opposing opinions has not been permitted in any part of the South within the experience of the present generation. No man has dared to present to the public, either in the press or on the platform, more than one side of the great question of the day, or latterly, to introduce from abroad any expressions of dissent from the prevailing doctrine. The consequence has been that there is no native Southerner under the age of forty-five who can be said to have any political training, or to possess the "political sense," as that phrase is understood at the North.—He has never witnessed free debate; he has never seen a minority submit to the legislation of a majority without losing the hope of overturning them or desisting from its efforts to do so. In short, he feels very much about dissenters from the prevailing political creed as a pious Catholic of the twelfth century felt about heretics, and looks on orators who declaim against his theories on the stump very much as Austrian politicians, about 1820, might be supposed to look on an Italian exile, newly arrived from London, to edit a paper of extreme views at Milan.

Now, what is the "political sense?" It is not that acquaintance with history, political economy, jurisprudence, and human nature which is called political knowledge; nor is it the shrewdness, acuteness, and skill in the art of persuasion which makes the successful political "manager." There are countries in the world in which political knowledge abounds, but in which the political sense is so wanting that the establishment of a free government is almost impossible. A man might be, as the Abbe Sieyes thought he was, "perfect in the science of politics," and yet be, as the Abbe certainly was, an incorrigible political donkey. A community, too, might be composed of men as astute, dexterous, and unscrupulous as any "wire-puller" who has ever walked the streets of Albany, and yet go to pieces politically in the course of a very few years for want of any cohesive principle. The "political sense" is, in short, the quality, partly moral, partly mental, which enables a man to believe in the power of discussion, to work for distant results, and to be content for the present with what he can get in default of what he wants. A man who rails against talk in politics; who loves the "previous question;" and who, when the vote goes against him, goes home to pack up his trunk with a view of emigration, or to load his pistol, or to distribute arms amongst his friends, or form secret associations, or who talks of "pestilent doctrines," or who forces himself into company where he is not wanted, or drags his neighbors' children to school with his own against their parents' will in order to assert the doctrine of human equality, is wanting in the political sense, and if ever to acquire it.

That this sense has almost totally died out at the South, and that it will need some years of order and security to restore it, the occurrences of every week show more and more clearly. The abstinence of the leading whites from all participation in politics under the new constitutions, thus permitting the government to pass into the hands of those whom they denominate as "carpet-baggers," "scallawags," and ignorant blacks, followed by incessant talk of appeals to arms, deputations to Washington to apply for military protection, the formation of secret associations, the practice of assassination as a political remedy, and the issue of irritating denunciatory manifestoes directed against the black population with whom they have to live, and on whom they are dependent for their prosperity, are all striking proofs of the political imbecility brought on the Southern mind by the long absence of an opposition. Men with the political sense in a healthy condition would have held on tenaciously to every scrap of power they could seize or retain, would, if possible, never have let the negroes get from under their influence, and above all, would never have allowed them to realize the possibility that the State could be governed by carpet-baggers and ignoramuses. The exposures recently made by the Democratic Club at Charleston of the composition of the South Carolina Legislature under the new regime are, even if true, simply consequences of their own folly, and, indeed, have a striking resemblance, as pieces of self-stultification, to the manifestoes and declarations which the French emigres used to issue from the banks of the Rhine against the vulgar French republicans. A politician who sulks and sneers and refuses to act, does not simply confess that he is powerless, but that he is a fool.

The Ku-Klux Klan, let us add, is nothing new. The South before the war was one vast Ku-Klux Klan: every man was a member of the organization, and the State Governments made no attempt to interfere with it, and its victims were rare because dissenters from the popular creed did not enter the South. What makes it seem so novel now is that the State Governments are in the hands of the dissenters, and there is a large body of them in every State. But its operations are simply the application to the new state of things of the old Southern mode of repressing differences of political opinion. The great question of the day to Southerners is still the status and rights of the negro, and they bring to the consideration of it their old practices. If a man gets up on the stump and preaches negro equality, they do not get up on another stump and preach white superiority, and rely on time and their own exertions to show that his preaching was idle talk, but they go home and take a solemn oath to "keep an eye" on the orator, and if he does the like again to shoot him or carry him into the woods and whip him—in other words, about what the Monte negrins would do if a preacher made his appearance amongst them to propagate Mohammedanism and eulogize the Turks. When Forrest and others like him throw the blame of the present state of things on the radicals they deceive either themselves or are trying to deceive others. In the account he gave the other day of his plans and those of his associates, to the correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, he simply said that they were going to adhere to the old Southern mode of extirpating holders of disagreeable opinions; and his threats seem alarming simply because the holders of disagreeable opinions now are likely to resist. Formerly, they never thought of such a thing.

There can be no doubt that it is a misfortune that some such disposition should not have been made at the close of the war of such persons as Forrest, Toombs, and Cobb as would have ensured their abstinence from politics. After the report of the Congressional Committee on the Fort Pillow massacre, the release of Forrest on parole was a great scandal; even after his parole had been accepted, it ought to have been returned to him by the Government, and the alternative—exile, or a trial before a military commission—have been offered to him. With regard to the others, however much opposed we may be to political vengeance, there is nobody who will deny that men who have made themselves conspicuous in instigating an appeal from the ballot to the sword ought to be compelled, after defeat in the field, to hold their tongues for the remainder of their days. Civil war is too dreadful a thing to be tried by agitators unless they really mean it to be the last thing they will ever try; but the mild view taken of their performances by the Northern public not unnaturally causes the Southern leaders now to treat the Rebellion as merely one of the legitimate means of attaining political ends the failure of which ought to entail no more inconvenience on the vanquished than defeat at an election. These men are now trying to be as mischievous as ever, and there is only one remedy for their talk, and that is the foreing them to listen peaceably to other people's talk. This cannot be done in a year, but a great deal may be done towards it in four years. When over the time comes when the spectacle so common at the West—a spectacle, let us add, which indicates, no matter how coarse the manners or low the intellectual culture of a community may be, political development of the highest order, and the possession of the political sense in the utmost activity—of the candidates of the opposing parties traversing the country together, and haranguing the same audiences on opposite sides of the same question, will be witnessed at the South, its regeneration will for all practical purposes be complete, but not till then. Until we see this, emigrants will avoid it, life and property in it be insecure, and the minority, or the blacks, will be in constant peril. The process of education, as we have often said, has been begun. Every time a radical gets up in any Southern State, and says "shocking" things, and is not murdered for them, the work is advanced. It ought to be the main business of the North next to see that it is not interrupted until there will be no corner in which a man cannot make a fool of himself, on the stump or in a newspaper, without fear of other penalty than having his folly exposed. Southern society will then be placed under the dominion of public opinion, which, in a healthy condition of things, is the fundamental guarantee of peace and security.

☞Let every voter vote for Grant and Colfax and we will have peace.

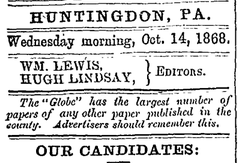
Monday, October 12.

We write this before the voting commences on the first day of the fight for peace. Whatever may be the result in the State or county to-morrow, Tuesday, we are prepared to fight on—fight on until the grand battle shall be over in November. We do not expect to be defeated to-morrow—but if we should be, we do not intend to surrender until completely surrounded by the enemy and our last load is discharged. The country can only be saved by brave hearts and strong arms—then, Union Republicans, stand firm and the enemy will be completely routed in November. The army of rebels that once surrendered to Grant's forces, must not now be permitted to control our Government. The fight is just the same as then—against the rebels, their sympathizers, and their candidates. Union Republicans, resolve unanimously, to keep in solid line, and resolve unanimously to do better in November for Grant and Colfax. GRANT, COLFAX, and VICTORY! must be our rallying cry in earnest.

The Rebels Can't Rule.

THE PEOPLE for GRANT



PENNSYLVANIA O. K.,

FROM 10,000 TO 15,000.

OHIO 25,000 MAJORITY.

INDIANA 7,000 MAJORITY.

We have met the enemy and they are ours. The contest of Unionism against Treason has again triumphed, and patriots everywhere can rejoice.

Pennsylvania will give Hartranft from 10,000 to 15,000 majority. Ohio will give from 25,000 to 30,000, and Indiana is expected to give over 7,000.

Philadelphia will about hold her own, which is 2,000 Democratic.

In Harrisburg the Republicans have elected Hays the Republican candidate for Mayor.

Allegheny county gives a Republican gain of 2,000.

Mifflin county is reported to have given 20 majority for Hartranft—a Republican gain of over 200.

The probabilities are that Brown and Martin Republican candidates for Assembly in this district are elected.

The news was received in this place with intense enthusiasm by the Republicans, while the Democrats went despondently to their holes.

About fifty of our citizens turned out after midnight, headed by martial music and twelve harmonicles, and paraded our streets, awaking the natives. They serenaded Mr. Saml. T. Brown, S. B. Chaney, and others.

Huntingdon County Returns.

Cass township—Hartranft 122, Boyle 49; Campbell 122, Ent 49; Morrell 124, Linton 47; Brown 124, Martin 122, Miller 50, Taylor 46; Neely 111, Africa 60.

Franklin township—Hartranft 169, Boyle 101; Campbell 169, Ent 101; Morrell 169, Linton 101.

Huntingdon, E. W.—Hartranft 176, Boyle 138; Campbell 178, Ent 137; Morrell 178, Linton 137; Brown 189, Martin 166, Miller 142, Taylor 120; Neely 162, Africa 150.

Huntingdon, W. W.—Hartranft 134, Boyle 113; Campbell 135, Ent 112; Morrell 136, Linton 115; Brown 143, Martin 126; Miller 110, Taylor 106; Neely 120, Africa 131.

Tod township—Hartranft 105, Boyle 46; Campbell 105, Ent 46; Morrell 106, Linton 45; Brown 106, Martin 106, Miller 45, Taylor 44; Neely 101, Africa 48.

Union township — Hartranft 109, Boyle 53; Campbell 109, Ent 53; Morrell 109, Linton 53; Brown 110, Martin 109, Miller 52, Taylor 53; Neely 103, Africa 60.

THE LATEST.—Morrell elected by 800 in the district. Capt. Neely elected by five or six hundred. The whole county ticket elected.

The slanders against Neely did'nt win. His slanderers crawling into very small holes—very small holes.

Almost the full vote of Huntingdon county is returned. Republican majority over 1,000—a gain of 250.

Let the South Reorganize its own Governments.

On the 30th of June last, Frank Blair wrote as follows to Mr. Brodhead:

"There is but one way to restore the Government and the Constitution, and that is for the President elect to declare these acts null and void, COMPEL the army to undo its usurpation at the South, DISPERSE the carpet-bag State Governments, allow the white people to re-organize THEIR OWN governments and elect Senators and Representatives."

It was the letter of Frank Blair's that secured him the nomination at the New York Convention, through the influence of Preston, Forrest, and other Rebel Generals, fresh from the scenes of bloodshed consequent on their rebellion against the United States Government. We have said and still say that this is a revolutionary letter—one that was written to please the Southern leaders, and one which does please them, and they will demand, if Seymour and Blair are elected, that all the sentiments expressed in the letter be carried into practice. Not only are the reconstruction acts to be declared null and void, but the army is to be COMPELLED to undo its work of keeping the South from rebelling again; all the State Governments now existing in the South are to be DISPERSED, and all the white people are to be allowed to re-organize THEIR OWN governments, and elect Senators and Representatives Remember that the latter clause does not say that the loyal white people are to be allowed to re organize the Governments, but it clearly and distinctly implies that the "white people," embracing the rebels in toto, from Jeff. Davis down to the conscripted private so lately in the rebel ranks, shall re organize their own governments, and more than that, they shall elect Senators and Representatives. Loyal men of the North, can you, will you permit such an insult to go unpunished? Can you countenance the man that will so boldly declare that rebels shall rule the Government they tried to destroy? Will you vote to place such a man in a position at the head of our Government who will permit the rebels to set up their own Governments, who will compel the army to undo all that it has done in the South. If you will do this, then go back to the rebellion—undo all that Grant and the boys in blue did at Vicksburg—all that the the boys in blue did under Sherman in his march to the sea—all that our Union Generals and brave boys did to suppress the rebellion—undo all that we did to prevent secession and restore the Union; let the Southern people organize their own Governments under Jeff. Davis, and let the South secede. If you vote for Seymour and Blair, you vote for just such a state of affairs. No reasoning man can discover anything else than revolution in the utterances of Frank Blair, and if he votes to place him and his colleague Seymour in power, he is a party to the revolution that will follow their election. Voters, remember this on the 3d of November next.

FORGERY.

Handbills of the following character were sent, we suppose, to all election districts:

Notice.

To those having Lands to Patent, as all the unpatented Lands will have to be patented now in a very short time, and in many cases the expenses will be large. Therefore, we as Republicans, who are interested in this way should look more to our own interests than to partizan feeling. A County Surveyor or outside or away from the county seat, is quite a useless officer, but one at the county seat is a very important one at this time. The Prothonotor or Register might as well be away off in one corner of the county, as the Surveyor. The Republican candidate lives in the most out of the way place in the whole county, whilst the Democratic candidate resides at the county seat, and has his office with J. S. Africa, one of the oldest Surveyors in the county. The Surveyor ought to reside at the county seat where all the papers can be kept together, and in many cases save vexatious delays and often pecuniary expenses. Therefore we the undersigned Republicans throwing aside all party feelings solicit the votes of the party in favor of A. W. P. Johnson, against whom not a disparaging word can be said by any party.

P. M. LYTLE,	WM. H. WOODS,
WM. P. ORBISON,	J. SEWELL STEWART,
JAMES STEEL,	JOHN SCOTT,
WM. LEWIS,	J. R. SIMPSON.

The above "Notice" was mailed from Huntingdon in an envelope, post marked Oct. 12, to "Ed. Green, Esq., Mill Creek," and received by him, and was by him brought up to Huntingdon. We never attached our names to any such paper, and the person who has sent out such notice has forged our names.

P. M. LYTLE,	WILLIAM LEWIS,
W. H. WOODS,	J. R. SIMPSON,
WM. P. ORBISON,	JOHN SCOTT,
JAMES STEEL,	J. SEWELL STEWART.

☞Soldiers, if Wade Hampton, N. B. Forrest, or any other rebel General, were to come North and invite you to join his army, would you do it? And yet these same men are to-day mustering recruits for the Blair and Seymour army in the Southern States. Are you willing to follow such leaders, who tried to destroy your Government? Remember, Gen. Grant raised recruits to fight the rebellion, and he did whip the rebels. No, will you forsake Grant and take up with Hampton and Forrest, by voting for Seymour and Blair. We hope not.

☞We shall see who has been hurt most by the slanders of the Monitor. Never before was there such desperate means resorted to by any party to defeat an opponent as has been resorted to by the enemies of Capt. Neely to defeat him. If he has received his party vote it will be an evidence that the Monitor has completely lost all character for truth with the people.

Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana respond to Vermont and Maine. Now for November, and victory for Grant.

☞The Democratic speakers continue to prate about how they intend to pay the National debt, if they get in power. The propose to issue one currency, and that currency will be the "greenback," which is now talked about equally as much as the "nigger." The country is to be flooded with greenbacks. We will have plenty of them, and of course they will go to pay high prices on articles of every description. For instance, if greenbacks are issued to three times the amount at present in circulation, we will be obliged to pay three times the price we now pay. Flour, by the barrel, which now sells at $11 and $12, will then sell at $33 and $36; beef, by the pound, for which we now pay 14 cents will then be 42 cents, and butter will go up to a dollar or more. This a very consoling subject to contemplate, but yet it is evenly so, for the more greenbacks, the less gold, and with the decrease in the amount of gold there is a corresponding increase in prices and if we have nothing but paper money, the Democrats will issue enough of it to increase prices on everything three-fold and four-fold if necessary. The poor man will then be the loser, for his wages will not go up as fast as prices, and the credit of the Government will be worthless. If the National debt is to be paid in this way, we must confess that we can't see how it is to be done, unless as the Democratic platform boldly declares, a tax is laid on "EVERY species of property according to its value." If the laboring man can stand a tax on his working tools, let him vote the Democratic ticket; if the farmer can stand a tax on everything that he produces and on his farm beside, let him vote for Seymour and Blair; and if there is a voter anywhere who wants everything he owns of value taxed, let him vote the Democratic ticket, and our word for it he will get enough of "taxes" before his party is in power six months.

A Picture for the Contemplation of Irishmen.

We place in parallel columns for convenience of comparison, Colfax's letter to the Fenian Committee, and Blair's speech before the Fenian meeting in St. Louis, in September, 1866:

COLFAX'S LETTER.

HOUSE REPRESENTATIVES, Washington, Feb. 20, 1864.

DEAR SIR—From the time that I saw the gallant and lamented Corcoran, so bravely in battle, so heroic in captivity, was the head of your organization, I have felt a warm interest in it, though knowing nothing, of course, of its internal machinery, its obligations or its ritual. Remembering gratefully the historical fact of warm sympathy expressed by an Irish Parliament for our forefathers when struggling for the independence they won for us, regarding hopefully every well-directed effort or patriotic endeavor throughout the world for nationality, and rejoicing that so many loyal Irishmen have enrolled themselves in the army of the Union, to save their adopted country from anarchy and destruction, I send you, in response to your request, the enclosed $20, which would be larger but for many other demands on me.

Respectfully yours,
SCHUYLER COLFAX.

BLAIR'S SPEECH.

GENTLEMEN—I am with you heart and soul, and hereby say, "God bless the Fenegans." [A voice—the Fenians, General.] I know what I am talking about, and I say Fenegans. (Cheers and laughter.) And I say that I hope to see the issues flourish and prosper, and shall bless the day when Ireland is governed by Irishmen. In accomplishing this laudable undertaking I will do all I can to assist you. I will place myself, if needs be, at your head, march with you to Staten Island, oversee your embarkation, will stand on the most elevated bluff of the coast, and, as you raise the green emblem over the stars and stripes, while your stones are, under full headway, turning their prows to the orient, I will say, Good bye, God bless you, and may you be successful in your undertaking. May you lift the British Lion out of his boots and west from his grasp the emerald gem of the sea; but whether or not you shall succeed in this endeavor, may each and all of you remain in Ireland or elsewhere, and never again set foot upon these shores. You are wanted there, and we can get along without you here.

Irishmen will be asked to vote for Frank Blair. Let such as these think of the sneers flung into their teeth by Frank Blair: "I will lead you to Staten Island and oversee your embarkation for the Emerald gem of the sea; but whether you succeed or not in your enterprise, may you each and all remain in Ireland or elsewhere, and never again set foot upon these shores You are wanted there, but we can get along without you here." How an Irishman can swallow the insult and vote for Blair, is inconceivable. No Irishman possessing proper self-respect and love for Old Ireland can vote for Frank Blair. Only the sodden slaves of party domination will do it. Irishmen, vote for Colfax.

☞Nothing in the world is more certain than that Gen. Grant, when he enters the White House, will take immediate steps to insure peace in the South. The South itself has a tolerably clear idea of him, and his manner of accomplishing objects. It is from this fact that a few simple words from him declaring his intention to protect every man in every right, will of themselves go far to accomplish the object. He will do no unnecessary thing; but he will do everything necessary to accomplish the high resolve to have peace and security in every part of the South. We shall therefore have good results immediately following the election, months before Grant succeeds to his high office. No sane man need be told what must be expected should he be defeated and Gov. Seymour elected. The Tammany Convention gave new life to every bad element in the South, and licensed all the bad passions of the demoralized and rebellious Southern population.—A heavy and impenetrable cloud will at once obscure the future, if Grant is defeated and no man will know what to do or expect. One or the other of these two conditions will follow the election. Which shall it be?

☞Senator Patterson, of Tennessee, President Johnson's son-in law, has announced himself as a supporter of Grant and Colfax. He has made several bets that Grant will be elected, and expresses the opinion that he will receive 300,000 majority in the popular vote for President.

How Democrats carry Elections.

John Casey, an honest Irish laborer on the Clearfield railroad, was summoned to appear before the Legislative Investigating Committee last winter to testify in relation to the frauds committed at the election polls in Philipsburg, Centre county. As a law abiding citizen he came to Harrisburg and told the story in his own honest way, which is recorded in the Legislative Record, page 1411. It reads as follows:

"John Casey, sworn—I was working on the railroad for Mr. Collins at the October (1867) election; was boarding in Phillipsburg, where I voted with the other men; Mr. Lede took me up to vote and gave me the naturalization paper, and I put it in; cannot read; am as ignorant as a baste; I put the paper in my pocket; cannot tell what became of it; I was never naturalized; never was in a court before this; Lede told me to vote; I was working near Mr. Collins' store; came the day that O'Meara did to Philipsburg; I voted Democratic."

Such is the testimony of an honest Irishman. These words are the verbatim report of the testimony given by Casey under oath before the Investigating Committee of the Senate, and four days after the examination when the above was elicited he was found in the road near Clearfield, brutally murdered, beaten to death with clubs. He had undoubtedly been killed lest he should tell more, and to wipe out every trace of the crime at the polls, on the night of the murder, two men, on a forged order, obtained from his land lady all his papers and destroyed them. Dead men tell no tales; and the agents who seduced John Casey into committing a crime against the country will probably never be known in this world.

Leading Democrats.

Gen. Kilpatrick, the impetuous cavalry leader during the late rebellion, portrayed the character of some of the present good old Democrats, in one of his speeches at the Soldiers and Sailors Convention in Philadelphia last week, in the following unmistakable language. He says:

"Who have we to oppose us? The same men who opposed us during the rebellion, both in the South and at the North. Who are these men at the South who have joined hands with the Northern Democracy? Why, Robert Ould, who will be remembered by many here present who were confined as prisoners of war in the rebel pens. He is the man, who, on opening many of the boxes sent South by your loving mothers, said he thought the articles too highly seasoned for men of sedentary habits. Then there is Wade Hampton, who said to me that he would rather his arms should wither than live with the mudsills of the North, and that he hoped to live to apply the torch to every Northern home. He occupied a front seat in the New York Convention. Then there's ex-Governor Vance, of North Carolina, the man who addressed his troops with the remark, that he wanted them to fill hell so full of Yankees that their heels would stick out of the third-story window. He and Wade Hampton had gone into the guerrilla business, but a ride of 130 miles on an old mule which I gave him had the effect of dissolving that partnership. Then there is Forrest the butcher, who surrounded a garrison of four hundred men with a force ten times as strong, and, under cover of a flag of truce, marched his force to the rear and murdered nearly all the garrison. He buried living and dead in the same ditch, and nailed negroes to houses and fences, and there burned them."

General Dix and Grant.

A private letter from General John A. Dix, written from Paris nearly a year since, contains the following paragraph:

PARIS, January 16, 1868.

"I have thought for a year that Grant should be President. The prestige of his name will enable him to do more than any other man to heal the national dissensions which seem to me at this distance to be as far from a satisfactory solution as ever. Then he is honest from both instinct and habit, and he has good sense, perseverance, and a modest estimate of his own capabilities. I have no doubt he would call able men to his councils and listen to their advice, and I believe that he would be a firm conservative and successful Chief Magistrate."

WHAT SHERIDAN SAYS.

A Victory Now as Necessary as in 1865.

On Thursday a week last there was an immense re-union of the Boys in Blue in Philadelphia, and here is the despatch of a LIFE LONG DEMOCRAT, GLORIOUS PHIL SHERIDAN, to his comrades in arms:

FORT HARKER, Kan., Sept. 30, 1868.

—To Gen. Charles H. T. Collis, Philadelphia:—Say to the Boys in Blue that it is as essential to have a political victory this fall as it was to have an Appomattox in 1865, and that every man who loves his country should vote for Grant.

PH. SHERIDAN,
Major General, U. S. A.

☞There were one hundred and eighty-six Southern delegates in the New York Convention that nominated Seymour and Blair, one hundred and ten of whom served at one time or another, in the rebel army. These men controlled the convention, and now they demand of Northern men that they should support their ticket. What voter can so far forget respect for himself and duty to his country, as to vote any such ticket. Their very desire to have you vote with them is enough to induce you to vote against them.

☞The Chester County Journal published at Downingtown, heretofore a neutral paper, has hoisted the Grant and Colfax flag and is doing good service in the Republican cause.

'LET US HAVE PEACE.'

FULL RETURNS FROM OLD CONNECTICUT.

Unprecedented Republican Gains.

Four Thousand since last spring—New England Unanimous for Grant.

HARTFORD, Conn., October 9.—The returns from the town elections in this State are now all in. They show large Republican gains. Ninety-nine towns from which majorities are reported give a majority of nearly twelve hundred on the popular vote in favor of the Republicans. The aggregate Democratic majority is 3,888; Republican 5,052. In these towns are included all the cities and places where the Democrats received their largest majorities.

Full returns from all the towns will increase the Republican majority to nearly fifteen hundred, making allowance for the fact that the Republican vote in Democratic strongholds was light, and that the Democrats made an unusual effort.

A full vote would show a greater change in public sentiment than appears by the figures given. The prospect is that Grant will carry the State by over two thousand majority. The Republican gain as indicated in the spring election is nearly four thousand.

Grant and Seymour Contrasted.

I believe Grant pre-eminently a man of administration. I believe he has not only laid the country under obligations to him which we can never repay for the services he rendered during the war, but I believe he is destined to lay the country under greater obligations. He will give us an administration so temperate, so divested of passion, free from all maligh influences, so wise in its selection of men, so judicious in carrying out measures, that we will see date from his administration a reconstruction of the administration of Washington himself—(cheers and applause)—a man whom in many important respects he resembles—(applause)—and in no respect more than this—in his wisdom in taking counsel of wise men and in making his personal decisions reflect the wisdom of all the councillors he can gather around him. If General Grant sits at the head of the Government of these United States, there is not a single workingman in the nation, not one poor emigrant, not one dusky creature that by his pine-knot candle reads his spelling book, that will not feel that he is safe and secure after Gen. Grant is President—will know that the Republican party is the party of the common people, and every human being in the United States will know that the power of the Government and the party of enlightened and Christian people will be all in favor of the greatest security and the greatest measure of liberty at all. (Cheers.)

What is his antagonist in private life? A gentleman not only most respectable, but kind and amiable, of polished and winning manners against whose private character no man has brought a shadow of reproach. But Seymour is not a man of ideas; he is not a man of victorious will; not a man who in dark and difficult days seizes the right path, and then though all men leaves him follows it to the victorious end. Neither soldier nor general, he is a man that will be managed by those around him; without a record in the war but a bad record, he would hang his burdens on the government. He is not the man that ought to be entrusted to shape the policy of an era of liberty. Never by speech or by any act of his life has he shown himself to be the right man to place in power on those terms of liberty. A layer makes the best statesman, a general makes the best civilian. The man of ideas is the man under whom this nation will rest most secure and safe.—Beecher.

More Results of Democratic Teachings.

From the New York Commercial Advertiser.

The official investigation of the Camilla (Ga.) massacre has hardly been completed before we are called upon to chronicle another bloody butchery at Opelousas, the capital of St. Landry Parish, Louisiana. It was another deliberate preconcerted movement to crush Unionism in that region, and restore rebel supremacy. According to the New Orleans "Bulletin," a virulent Democratic sheet, one hundred Unionists were killed and fifty wounded, whereas only four Democrats were wounded, and none killed. The Crescent, another Democratic sheet, is confident that Radicalism is done for in St. Landry Parish, at least for this Presidential campaign.

Mr. Vidal, member of Congress from Louisiana, established some time since at Landry, the Progress, a Republican paper. It has been edited by Mr. Bentley, who likewise teaches a school at that place. On Monday last a squad of Rebels set upon Mr. Bentley, in the presence of his pupils, and proceeded to chastise him. His friends gathered to his rescue. He, however, urged them to disperse to their homes, assuring them that he should sue out warrants for the arrest of the ruffians who had set upon him. Meanwhile, the ex-Confederates began to assemble in large numbers, with arms, and soon became an uncontrollable mob, thirsting for blood. They proceeded to the Progress office, threw the type and press into the river, and seizing the French editor, Mr. Durand, took him to a neighboring wood, where he was lynched. The foreman of the printing department was compelled to flee for safety. Now began a cold-blooded, heartless butchery. The fiends scattered through the town and neighboring plantations, shooting as they went, until one hundred and fifty blacks fell victims to their demoniac fury. The latter appear to have made no resistance, as only four of their persecutors were wounded. Such, in brief, are the details of this horrid affair, the accounts of the New Orleans Bulletin and Republican substantially agreeing. The fleeing foreman of the printing office has arrived in New Orleans, and states that the rebels have determined to kill or drive out all the Unionists, white or black, from the Opelousas district. The New Orleans Times (Democrat), of a late date, has an account of an affair at Shreveport, which resulted in the death of fifteen Unionists and three rebels. The other day a party of armed men surrounded the house of Roderick Hill, a Republican, residing at Ashpole, Robeson county, N. C. and shot to death a young man, a Republican, while in the act of being married to Mr. Hill's daughter. The bride was likewise seriously injured.

These and other similar outrages daily occurring throughout the late Confederacy indicate that the spirit of rebellion has once more become fairly rampant. The teachings of the Democracy of to-day are having their natural effect. The dire spirit which pervaded and controlled the Tammany Convention has permeated the entire late Confederacy, from North Carolina to Arkansas, and is bringing forth fruits in abundance. The late Confederates accepted the platform and temper of that body as an invitation to begin the work of anarchy, and they have not been slow to act upon it. Tammany warmed into life all the smouldering elements of the Rebellion. Fresh from its counsels, Gov. Vance, Hampton, Forrest, et al, proceeded southward to herald the glad tidings that the Democratic party was to secure for them all the objects for which they had fought. The people have believed this. Misled by their public men, they have believed that the Democratic party was certain of success, and would achieve all it promised to do. They have believed that General Blair's programme would be carried out, and so impatient have they been to carry on the work that they have not able to wait until the Democratic party was duly installed in power.

We have in these Camilla and Opelousas butcheries a foretaste of the scenes which would transpire through the late Confederacy were Seymour and their successful at the polls. The announcement of their election would be the signal of inaugurating a war upon the Unionists irrespective of color. The Mobile Register, Tuscaloosa Moniter, Montgomery Mail, Mobile Telegraph, and other exponents of Southern opinion, have already assured us that when that day comes the "carpet-baggers" will have to travel forthwith, and the blacks follow after them unless they mend their ways.—Said the Richmond Examiner, the other day:—"They (the whites) will demonstrate their superiority to the negro race, in a manner that will make the naked savages of Ethiopia, for centuries to come, howl with horror at the name of a Southern white man."

If now, with an impending election, and when the World and Richmond Whig, warned by Vermont and Maine, are counselling moderation, these unrepentant rebels indulge in such pastimes, what might we not expect in the event of Seymour and Blair's success.

Happily, however, no such calamity awaits the country. The election of General Grant will put an end to all this Rebel carnage and wrong. Pardoned Confederates who attempted to overthrow the Government will learn that those who stood by the Government have rights they must and shall respect. They will be made to learn that freedom of speech must and shall prevail from the Potomac to the Rio Grande; that we must and shall have peace in face as well as in name.

Meanwhile the Washington authorities should hasten to aid those of Louisiana in making a thorough examination into this last butchery, and fixing the responsibility where it belongs.

Report of the Committee on the Peace and Good Order of the State—Lawlessness and crime Unparalleled

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—The joint committee of the General Assembly appointed to investigate the peace and good order of the State, Hon. Hugh J. Campbell, chairman, report that within a short period 204 Unionists have been killed; 51 were shot, and 143 otherwise maltreated, making a total of 398.

The report states that they have examined personally 141 witnesses, have received 81 letters from various responsible and reputable citizens, and have taken 350 copies of affidavits from the originals in the possession of the Senate and House Committees on Elections and Returns. Your committee are of the belief that not one tithe of the murders and outrages actually committed during the time embraced in our examination appears in the present report, owing to the shortness of the time given and other cases above set forth. Your committee have reason to believe that if adequate time is given to take even such testimony as may be offered to them without search for it from different parts of the State, the facts will disclose a state of lawlessness, terrorism, and crime that is unparalleled in any civilized country, and disgraceful to the age in which we live and the Christian character which we profess.

Humanity sickens at the contemplation of a bigotry so ferocious and a hate so remorseless, founded solely on political differences, and having for its impelling motive not resistance to oppression, but an unruly desire to coerce the sentiments and actions of others, and a blind feeling of rage and vengeance toward those whom they cannot cow nor silence.

It is the mature conclusion of your committee, founded on the testimony before them, that the state of lawlessness and unpunished crime prevalent in this State is chargeable not alone to the desperate and infamous characters who are the immediate agents, but to the apathy and silent connivance of that large and respectable class of the people of the State, who, while they would scorn personally to commit any of those violent acts, if they do not actually sympathize with their perpetrators at least refrain studiously from any efforts to restrain or bring them to justice, and are therefore justly liable to the indictment of the peace-loving portion of the community for the offence of permitting such miscreants to roam at large unpunished.

The Republican meeting on Wednesday last was said to be the largest ever held in this place. The speeches were all highly spoken of, and the eloquence and sarcasm of Mr. Matthews fascinated his hearers and marked him as one of the most effective orators on the side of truth and justice.

A gentleman has deposited $500 in the First National Bank of Johnstown, as a wager on the result of the Presidential election. He offers to bet $400 that Grant and Colfax will be elected if they live; $50 that they will carry every Northern State, and $50 that they will carry Cambria county—the whole to be taken together.

To enable all to know how much bread can be made from a barrel of flour, the following extract from a New York paper will show—"196 lbs. of flour, 11 gallonsor 90 lbs. of water, 2 gallons or 16 pints of yeast, and 3 lbs. of salt, make 306 lbs. of dough, which evaporates in kneading, baking, &c., about 40 lbs., leaving about 265 lbs. net of bread.

Two girls in the Sucker State, driving in a buggy on a plank road, were stopped and asked for toll. "How much is it?" "For a man and a horse," replied the gate-keeper, "the charge is fifty cents." "Well, then, get out of the way, for we are two gals and a mare. Git up, Jenny!" And away they went, leaving the man in mute astonishment.

A furniture manufactory is to be started in West Huntingdon. Unlike other institutions that are born and rot in the imagination, this one is already under way. The company is composed of men who "push things," and they have commenced the foundation of the building, which is to be forty by seventy feet. The machinery is to be run by steam. We are glad to note that Huntingdon is beginning to look up in its manufacturing interests.

A child in Thompsontown, Juniata county, undertook to pour coal oil on a slow fire, from a tin can. The contact of the oil with the fire was immediately followed by a sheet of flame, which set fire to the oil in the can and exploded it, and the burning oil was scattered over the clothing of two children standing near, and in an instant both were wrapped in a sheet of flame. They both died from the effects. This is a painful warning to parents not to start a fire with coal oil.

Prepare for winter. That is the lesson of these cool mornings and long evenings. It is a lesson which enjoins certain duties on all of us. The prudent housekeeper will mend the leaks in his roof, repair the broken rainspouts, replace the missing panes of glass, repair his pavement if it requires it, lay in his coal and wood, and take other precautions to make his home comfortable, economize, and save doctor bills. Withal, the poor in our midst should be remembered.

The Mass Meeting Here.

The Union Republican Mass Meeting in this place on Wednesday last was truly a grand affair. We were too busy during the day to take notes, and can only speak of it as a whole—an immense crowd of Union Republicans—a solid column of friends of Grant and the Union Republican cause. Several townships sent large delegations—and every township was represented. Porter township sent much the largest delegation, reaching almost from the upper end of the town to the lower end—but Mt. Union borough delegation took the handsome flag, as it had the largest delegation in proportion to the Republican vote of that election district. The crowd was addressed in the afternoon by Gen. Farnsworth of Illinois, and Hon. R. Stockett Matthews of Maryland. In the evening, after a grand torchlight procession, the crowd was addressed by Hon. A. H. Cragan of New Hampshire, and Hon. Mahlon Chance of Ohio. Everybody returned to their homes perfectly satisfied with the demonstration.

Our Band.

The Huntingdon Silver Cornet Band was in the city of Philadelphia, on Thursday last, and took part in the reception of General McClellan. The Age thus notices the boys:

"It was noticed that the music by the bands in the line of the procession yesterday was unusually fine. The same spirit that animated the people seemed to be infused even into the "players on instruments." Besides the city bands, there were a number from abroad, and amongst the best of these was the Huntingdon Silver Cornet Band, which arrived in the city at 10 A. M. After serenading Senator Wallace at his headquarters, they fell into line, being assigned a position immediately in front of the McClellan body-guard. They had sixteen instruments, and the excellence of their musical performance was the subject of universal remark." Pass them around.

Tribute of Respect.

Arrapahoe Tribe, No. 68, I. O. R. M., Huntingdon, Pa., 8th Sun Travelling Moon, G. S. D. 377.

WHEREAS, The Great Spirit, in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our beloved Brother, W. SCOTT MCCABE; Resolved, That while we mourn the loss of our beloved Brother, we will not forget that we too are mortal, that these frail bodies of ours possessing now so much strength and vigor must ere long like his, become inmates of the narrow house in the city of the dead, and our spirits return to the Great Spirit of the universe who spake them into existence.

Resolved, That he carries with him to the Happy Hunting Grounds of his Fathers, our tenderest recollections, whilst those surviving ones dear to him have our heartfelt sympathy in this their bereavement. But while we mourn his loss we should not forget that our loss is his eternal gain.

Resolved, That our Wigwam shall be appropriately draped in mourning, for the space of one moon, and that each Brother shall wear the usual badge of mourning for the same length of time.

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be furnished the family of our deceased Brother, and published in the town papers.

There is none so rich he cannot die,
And none so poor he cannot find a grave.

Millinery.

We are happy to announce to our lady readers that Mrs. L. A. Hamer has returned to this place and opened a shop in Portstown, in the residence of Mr. A. B. Flood, where she is prepared to do all kinds of Millinery work and plain sewing, at lower rates than any other person in town. Having had considerable experience in the business she flatters herself that she can please all who favor her with their custom. oct7-3t

DIED,

In Neosho, Newton Co., Wisconsin, on the 26th of September, 1868, MRS. MARTHA M. HENRY, (late of Hunting don Co., Pa.) aged 34 years, 7 months and 16 days. She leaves a husband and six children, the youngest but two weeks old, to mourn her loss.

At Warrior Ridge, on the 23d of September, GEORGE LAMP, aged 62 years, 3 months and 11 days.

The deceased (in the latter part of his life) was a member of the Reformed Church. Lingering with Consumption five years he bore his affliction with christian patience and resignation, until relieved by his Master in whom he put all his trust.

Why should our tears in sorrow flow
When God recalls his own,
And bids them leave a world of woe,
For an immortal crown?

PROCLAMATION.—NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION

TO BE HELD ON

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3d, 1868.

Pursuant to an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved the second day of July, 1839, I, JAMES F. BATHURST, High Sheriff of the county of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, do hereby make known and give notice to the electors of the county aforesaid, that an election will be held in the said county of Huntingdon, on the 1st Tuesday after the first Monday of November, (being the 3d day of NOVEMBER,) at which time twenty-six electors of President and Vice President of the United States will be elected.

In pursuance of said act, I also hereby make known and give notice, that the places of holding the aforesaid special election in the several election districts within the said county of Huntingdon, are as follows, to wit:

1st district, composed of the township of Henderson, at the Union School House.

2d district, composed of Dublin township, at Pleasant Hill School House, near Joseph Nelson's, in said township.

3d district, composed of so much of Warriorsmark township, as is not included in the 10th district, at the school house adjoining the town of Warriorsmark.

4th district, composed of the township of Hopewell, at Rough and Ready Furnace.

5th district, composed of the township of Barree, at the house of James Livingston, in the town of Saulsburg, in said township.

6th district, composed of the borough of Shirleysburg, and all that part of the township of Shirley not included within the limits of District No. 2, as hereinafter mentioned and described, at the house of David Fraker, dec'd, in Shirleysburg.

7th district, composed of Porter and part of Walker town ship, and so much of West township as is included in the following boundaries, to wit: Beginning at the southwest corner of Tobias Canfman's Farm on the bank of the Little Juniata river, to the lower end of Jackson's narrows, thence in a northwesterly direction to the most southerly part of the farm owned by Michael Maguire, thence north 40 degrees west to the top of Tussey's mountain to intersect the line of Franklin township, thence along the said line to Little Juniata river, thence down the same to the place of beginning, at the public school house opposite the German Reformed Church, in the borough of Alexandria.

8th district, composed of the township of Franklin, at the house of Geo. W. Mattern, in said township.

9th district, composed of Tell township, at the Union school house, near the Union Meeting house, in said twp.

10th district, composed of Springfield township, at the school house, near Hugh Madden's, in said township.

33d district, composed of the borough of Mount Union, at school house No. 1, in said borough.

34th district, composed of the Borough of Broad Top City, at the Public School House, in said borough.

I also make known and give notice, as in and by the 13th section of the aforesaid act I am directed, that every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector or judge, or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for."

Also, that in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to executions and for other purposes," approved April 16th, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 12th section "shall not be so construed as to prevent any militia or borough officer from serving as judge, or inspector or clerk of any general or special election in this Commonwealth."

In accordance with the provision of the 8th section of an act entitled "A further supplement to the election Laws of this Commonwealth," I publish the following:

That all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged or relieved from the penalty or disability therein provided, are deemed not taken to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof:

And whereas, Persons not citizens of the United States are not, under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania qualified electors of this Commonwealth

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions and subject to the disability imposed by said act of Congress approved March 3d, 1865, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot or ballots.

SEC. 2. That if any judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive or consent to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, he shall for each offence be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

SEC 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot or ballots, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall for such offence be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act in case of officers of election receiving any such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SECTION 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons, deprived of citizenship or disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officers to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

Particular attention is directed to the first section of the Act of Assembly, passed the 30th day of March A. D. 1866, entitled "An Act regulating the manner of Voting at all Elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth;"

"That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby hereafter, authorized and required to vote, by tickets printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and be labelled outside "judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace all the names of State officers voted for, and be labelled "state;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of Senator, members, and members of Assembly, if voted for, and members of Congress, if voted for; and labelled "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled "borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes."

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 67th section of the act aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one of the judges from each district at the Court House, in the borough of Huntingdon, on the second day after the day of election, being for the present year on Friday, the 11th of October next, then and there to do and perform the duties required by law of said judges. Also, that where a judge by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken in charge by one of the inspectors or clerks of the election of said district, and shall do and perform the duties required of said judge unable to attend.

Also, that in the 41st section of said act it is enacted that "every general and special election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clk. in the evening, when the polls shall be closed."

Given under my hand, at Huntingdon, the 10th day of Sept., A. D. 1868, and of the independence of the United States, the ninety-second.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys is derived from its cures, many of which are really marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of this country, that the public cannot need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of cutaneous or internal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it may exhibit its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

McGUIRE'S

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER

FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH, BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR,

And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and Empress Carlotta of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing. When thus used it 25 cents relieves headach.

McGUIRE'S

WILD FLOWERS FOR THE TEETH.

All those who are in favor of white teeth and a pleasant and perfumed breath, should at once use McGuire's Wild Flowers for the Teeth. All these preparations are put up in the most elegant and ornamental manner. We make no exception in saying that they are an ornament to a lady's toilet table, and none complete without them.

Warranted satisfactory or money refunded. Dealers will bear this in mind. Sold by all respectable Druggists in the United States and Canadas. Address orders to
